18 OCTOBER 2011

Films for 2012

The selection of films for the first half of 2012 is complete and all, again, come from member's suggestions. We have made the selections, keeping audience sensitivities in mind, whilst also extending the type and variety of genres. More humour, more films you may never have heard of, more films linked to books and yes... more music. Some films are beautiful, some are dramatic, some touch on difficult subjects, some are funny, some will touch your heart but all will entertain you. Details will follow once bookings are confirmed.

Help the Club - Shop at Amazon

If you should be using Amazon this Christmas to buy my present, or that of anyone else for that matter, please enter Amazon via the link on the film club's website.

This link will simply take you to the Amazon Internet shop, where you can decide what to get me. It will not take you to any particular products or promotions, the choice is entirely yours.

By using this link, every time you make a purchase, so Amazon pays the club a small commission. There is no extra cost to you, it is simply Amazon paying your club. These small amounts can mount up and as we all know, every little helps.

So, if you do shop on the Internet and you use Amazon, please remember to do so through our website.

Thank you. (...my favourite colour is blue by the way.)

November Member's Night

This year we will operate a 'trust' system of subscription renewal.

All we ask is that you put the price of your 2012 renewal in a sealed envelope and drop it into the box provided at the event. Your envelope should be marked with your name and 2011 membership number.

We will then complete our register and provide you with your membership card when you next attend. Please help by using the correct money, or preferably a cheque made payable to Brampton Film Club.

Those who are members in 2011 and will be aged under 60 on 1st January 2012, need to pay £5 for their 2012 membership, those aged over 60 on that date, need to pay £2.50. There will be envelopes available at the event for anyone who couldn't find one sooner.

You can start paying now if you like by leaving the correct payment in an envelope, as described, at the Community Centre.

Doors will open at 6.00pm on Saturday 19th November 2011. Cheese and wine will be served. The event is free to members. New members may join for 2012, on the night, at the usual price. Guests may attend with a member. Guests will become honorary members for this one night for an entrance fee of £5. Simples.

New Gift Idea

Following a suggestion from member Angela Rennie, we will be providing Membership Gift Cards.

These will be on sale at our events. They will simply cost the price of the type of membership you want to buy someone. We will issue the card with the membership number included and the recipient simply needs to complete their details and present it at any event, when their actual membership card will be issued. Simples.

The cards will look good and come in their own envelope, just like a gift voucher. They will make a nice gift and help the club increase membership levels.

Book It

Do you like to compare films taken from books with your opinion of the original story? Many of us do and to prove it, there are moves afoot to form a film club reading group. The idea is to read the book before the film is screened and then meet up to discuss what you thought of it. This will be an extension of the sociability of the club and should be enjoyed by anyone loving books, loving films and wanting to hear what others thought. This is another idea from Angela Rennie (why isn't she on the committee?) and will be put together with Wendy's help. The books can be obtained in numbers from the library service but they need to know how many to get, so let us know if you would like to engage with the group in 2012. The new film programme will indicate those films linked to books.
