

BRAMPTON FILM CLUB

News clips

Dear Member,

We hope you had a pleasant Christmas and that you are looking forward to the New Year and to the films you will be able to see at your film club.

One thing the committee has learnt (amongst the whole host of things we are learning), is that choosing films for other people is not an easy task. A sub-group from the committee has developed a programme for the first six months of 2008, during which time we'll expect to hear your views and ideas, not just about the films on show but also what films and activities you would like to see and take part in as the club progresses. We will then be able to develop a programme for the next six months, with your views and ideas in mind. However, planning is always ongoing so we do need your input sooner rather than later. You'll be pleased to know that the sub-group put a good deal of consideration into their task and was able to come to its decisions, without any major disagreements. All injuries were only minor and will not be noticeable by the time of the next screening.

We aim to publish a more detailed pamphlet of the films to be screened with short synopses but in the first instances, I thought you would like to know what's on and when, so that you can make your diary entries. If you have seen some of the films (or even all of them!), at home then do please consider coming to see it again at the club. Films can be different when watched as part of a large audience and you may find different aspects to the movie you hadn't noticed before. And in any case, we need the money...

Before I mention the films you may recall we asked if members would help publicise the event on 26 January 2008 by putting posters up. Well, well done members at Hallbankgate - we've received reports of posters positively festooning the village. That's the spirit! Hallbankgate's in the lead at this time but there's still time for others to catch up.

So, here's what you can see in the first six months:-

Saturday 26 January 2008 - The Last King of Scotland

Friday 15 February 2008 - Atonement

Saturday 29 March 2008 - Le Vie En Rose

Whilst on the Internet, click on the film title for more detail.

Saturday 26 April 2008 - Sideways

Friday 30 May 2008 - Monsoon Wedding

Saturday 21 June 2008 - The Lives of Others

We do reserve the right to change the programme, if necessary, as we must rely on outside resources. Hopefully this will not occur but if it did, we would let you know post haste.

Please note that you can, if you wish, bring along your own comfortable seat. No leather Chesterfields, three-piece suites or sun loungers please but if you have a favourite folding camping chair, or director's chair for example, that is easy to carry and set up, the Community Centre Manager has agreed that you can use it. Those doing so will be directed to a particular area of the hall set aside for such use and should arrive by 7.00 p.m. on the night.

Well that's all for now. We will publish more details of the programme soon.

Best wishes,

Eric Griffiths
